“Femmes et musique :
réécrire une nouvelle histoire”
(Women and Music: Rewriting a New History)

Conservatoire Pierre Barbizet, France

The exhibition Women and Music: Rewriting a New History, dedicated to European women composers, was first presented at the Pierre Barbizet Conservatory in Marseille. Largely inspired by encounters sparked by the Musical Bounce Back project, it aims to highlight female creators of both past and present, (re)discovered throughout this Euro-Mediterranean journey. Video testimonials showcasing the impact of the MBB project on musicians were projected.
